G-Star School of the Arts for Motion Pictures and Broadcasting (the only high school in the nation that has a motion picture studio on campus) is very excited to announce that actor Michael Nouri will be the first professional actor to "cement" his fame in the G-Star "Walk of Legends" having his hands imprinted in cement on Tuesday, December 14 at 1:15 PM at the G-STAR School of the Arts campus entrance way(Building J). In the Hollywood tradition of Grauman's Chinese Theater, G-Star is kicking off its "Walk of Legends, Artist in Residence" entrance way program with Mr. Nouri as the first to cement his fame at the school. At 1:30 PM Mr. Nouri will begin a seminar for the students in the G-Star Black Box Theater until 2:15 PM.

Mr. Nouri is presently featured in the film The Boynton Beach Bereavement Club that is being produced at the G-STAR/Katharine Hepburn Studios directed by Susan Seidelman (Desperately Seeking Susan with Madonna, pilot and several episodes of Sex In The City with Sarah Jessica Parker, and She-Devil with Meryl Streep).

Actor Michael Nouri of Flashdance fame; has most recently appeared in The Terminal with Tom Hanks and Katherine Zeta-Jones; Finding Forrester with Sean Connery; guest starred on TV shows such as The O.C., The West Wing, Law & Order, and Enterprise will have his hands imprinted in cement on Tuesday, December 14, 2004, at 1 PM in the G-STAR "Walk of Legends" entrance way to its school and motion picture studios (Building J).

Beginning the G-Star tradition with many more to follow, Mr. Nouri will be immortalized as a G-STAR "Artist in Residence" and his hand prints will remain on the "Walk of Legends" for all to see.

Press is invited and encouraged to attend this event.
Please feel free to call for any information needed prior to this most exciting kick off for G-Star
“Walk of Legends”

Press Conference to be held at 1:00 PM with Mr. Nouri
