G-STAR MEETS CRASH AND MILLION DOLLAR BABY

The G-Star Motion Picture Studios and School of the Arts in West Palm Beach is fast becoming the premier film studio in South Florida. Open for just 12 months, the G-Star Studios have had nine films produced on its back lot. The first film, The Boynton Beach Club, a production by the famous Director Susan Seidelman (Desperately Seeking Susan with Madonna, She-Devil with Meryl Streep, Making Mr. Right with John Malkovich) just released into theaters this month. The ninth film produced at the G-Star Studios was Dancin' on the Edge by Master Producer Jonathan Krane (over two billion dollars in box office with 44 movies such as Swordfish, Face/Off, Look Who's Talking I,II,III).

The next film to be produced at the G-Star Studios is by Executive Producer Bobby Moresco in conjunction with LA based Oak Films. Mr. Moresco is one of the Producers and the Co-Writer of the movie CRASH which just won the Academy Award for Best Picture and Best Screenplay. He also Co-Produced Million Dollar Baby, last year's Academy Award winning Best Picture. This family film, The Prince and the Pauper (working title), is a modern version of the story about a famous teenage movie star who changes places with a poverty-stricken boy who is his mirror double. Mr. Moresco's daughter, Amanda Moresco, has been tapped as Writer of the film. Mr. Moresco's Producer and Partner, Joe Reilly, owner of Oak Films, a Hollywood production company, recently auditioned over 100 G-Star School of the Arts acting students for key roles in the film. James Quattrochi (Director and Producer who has worked with William L. Petersen of CSI fame, Olympia Dukakis, Michael Biehn from Terminator, Lou Gossett, Jr. and Charles Durning) is at the helm as Director.

The majority of production will take place at the G-Star Studios and will incorporate several locations around Palm Beach County. The film is slated to begin production before the summer of 2006.
